Number 3361

SATURDAY, JANUARY 15. 1743.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Moscow, Dec. 24.

ER Majesty had no Interview, as was expected, with the Duke of Courland at the Monastery of the Holy Trinity, but contented herself with sending M. Lestock to see that Prince, who on his return reported him to be in a very low, disconsolate Condition, his Two Brothers in a still

State, and General Bismar labouring under great Afflictions. The Czarina express'd great Concern at the News, and immediately ordered the Duke 5000 Rubles, 1000 Rubles apiece to each of the other Prisoners. notwithstanding this, and innumerable other Instances of the sweet and merciful Disposition of her Imperial Majesty, there have not been wanting some Officers of the Guard, and even some Petty Officers in Household, who, forgetting both Duty and Decency, manifested their Disloyalty to their Sovereign in a Manner as made it absolutely necessary to punish them. Three therefore of the most culpable have had their Tongues cut out, their Noses slit, their Ears cropt, together with 10 who were less in Fault, have been sent Prisoners into Siberia. The Day before Yesterday her Imperial Majesty went to the Senate, and gave Royal Assent to a Law for restraining the excessive Use of Gold and Silver Lace; to another for banishing it, prohibiting them at the same time to carry Jew-ellery, Gold or Silver out of the Empire; and to another obliging them to receive any Debts that may be due to them in Copper Coin. We have still such Apprehensions of the Shah Nadir's undertaking something to Prejudice, that Orders have been sent to reinforce Troops on the Frontiers of Persia; and there is a Report that Hostilities have been actually committed.

Stockholm, Jan. 4. Mr. Berkentin, Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of Denmark, had his first Audience on the 28th of last Month, when he deliver'd to the King a Letter from his Danish Majesty, importing his Design of living upon good Terms with the Swedes, and leaving no Opportunity of rendering any good Office to his Majesty or the Nation. The Council of War having made a Report of their Proceedings against the Generals, which falls particularly hard upon Lewenhaupt, who, in Excuse of himself, completely laid the Blame upon the Ministry, the two Orders of Nobles and Peasants, have thereupon demanded, that the Diet should make a strict Enquiry, not only into the Conduct of the Ministry in this respect, but also into the Reasons by which the War between this Crown and the King of Russia were set on foot. Baron Pecklin the Holstein Minister has dispatch'd his Son Express to Kholm, to Duke Administrator; and his Return is impatiently expected. It is generally believed that his Highness's Affairs are in a very good Train here, the Diet having come to a new Resolution, that whoever should propose the Election of a Successor who was not of the Lutheran Religion, should be regarded as an Enemy to his Country.

From his Sardinian Majesty's Head Quarters at Lans-le-le, Jan. 5. His Majesty has acted with his usual Prudence; for, finding that the Enemy's Army was growing daily stronger and stronger, while his own, through Want of Provisions, thro' the Arts of such Spies who deluded his Soldiers, and thro' the Impudence of the Militia to return home, was growing weaker and weaker, he took a Resolution, by a timely Retreat, to prevent the Misfortunes which might otherwise befall his Forces, and by securing the Passages into Savoy, to prevent the Spaniards gaining much by his Retreat. His Majesty with the foreign Ministers is now at Turin, where he will concert the best Methods of reinforcing his Army by the Spring, and obliging the Enemy once again to quit the Country of which they are now in possession.

Rome, Dec. 29. It is conceived that all Disputes between this Republick and the Court of Vienna, as to Ceremonial, are at an End, since the Marquis John Spinola is actually named Envoy Extraordinary to the Queen of Hungary. There has happened an unlucky Accident at Port Spezzia. An English Man of War having sent a Signal to a Merchantman to bring to, in order to be search'd, of which the Ship taking no Notice, he sent his Long-boat on board her. The Vessel standing under Defence, the Governor of Fort St. Mary fired on the English Min of War, first with Powder, and then with Ball; of which the Captain has given Notice to the Admiral Matthews, and we are in great Pain about the Consequences.

Vienna, Jan. 5. The Court appears here in very high Spirits, having receiv'd lately several large Remittances from London. The Court has taken a Resolution to fortify the Cities of Passau and Scharding. The Report of Prince Charles of Lorraine's Marriage with the Archduchess Mary-Anne, Sister to her Majesty, is revived, and it is said will very speedily take effect; and we are assured, that his Royal Highness will soon after set out for Brussels, in order to take upon him the Command of the Austrian Netherlands. The French Garrison made Prisoners at Leutmaritz, are actually sent into Moravia. Marshal Kevenhuller is at present at Linz, where he proposes to confer with the States of Austria, on the Means of furnishing the Army with Provisions.

Vienna, Jan. 8. A Day or two ago an Express arriv'd from Prince Lobkowitz, but the Contents of his Dispatches were kept very secret. We are since inform'd, that he is assembling with the utmost Assiduity all his Forces, in order to enter Bavaria from Bohemia, at the same time that our Horse, Dragoons, and irregular Troops pour into it again from their present Quarters, which may perhaps quicken the intended March of the French towards the Rhine, without staying for the Succours they are said to expect from France. We expect here suddenly Mr. Villars, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy at the Court of Dresden, who is to put the last Hand here to an Affair of very great Importance to all the Three Courts.

Berlin, Jan. 15. We have observed within these few Days a very extraordinary Stir at Court, where the General Officers, and others in principal Confidence with his Majesty, have had frequent Conferences with him; in consequence of which, Orders have been sent to incamp a Body of Men early in the Spring in Polish Prussia, and to keep another Body of 30,000 Men ready to march on the first Orders, but whither, is yet a Secret. The French Minister having presented the King with a new Plan of Accommodation between the Emperor and the Queen of Hungary, his Majesty immediately communicated it to the Earl of Hyndford and the Resident from the Court of Vienna.

Ratisbon, Jan. 13. The Troops lately march'd from Prague into the Upper Palatinate are canton'd along the River Naab. Count Saxe is decamp'd from Deckendorf with the Troops under his Command, in order to prevent if possible Prince Lobkowitz from penetrating into Bavaria. The Report of Peace in Germany at least prevails more strongly than ever, especially among the French Officers at Stadthamhoff, who would certainly be very glad to see it concluded, and themselves thereby at liberty to leave a Country where they have suffered so great Hardships.

Frankfort, Jan. 16. The Marshal of the Court set out Yesterday for Munich, and it is said his Imperial Majesty has fix'd this Day Fortnight for his Return to that Capital; whence we are more and more perswaded that some Accommodation is on the Carpet, the rather because it is apparent that all the necessary Measures are taking in order for the French Army to return into Alsace.

Paris, Jan. 18. On Sunday last Cardinal Fleury was in so low a State of Health, that the Viaticum was administer'd to him, but he is since grown better, tho' it is generally thought he cannot last long. The Report which prevailed lately of a Private Treaty between his Sardinian Majesty and the Court of Spain, proves entirely false, that King having rejected, without suffering them to be deliberated upon, the Propositions that were made upon that Head, making use at the same time of this remarkable Expression, 'That tho' he was not able to keep his Dominions, he would still keep his Faith.'

Hague, Jan. 22. Mr. Trevor, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of Great Britain, and Count Podewills, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, had Yesterday a Conference with the President of the States-General for the Week, in order to invite their High Mightinesses to accede to the Alliance lately concluded between those Princes. We have Letters from Brussels, dated January 17, whereby it appears, that the Hessian Troops in the Pay of Great Britain were to begin their March on the Thursday following, and the English and Hanoverians were to follow them in a few Days.

L O N D O N.

Count Golofskin, her Imperial Majesty of Russia's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Hague, has thought fit to declare, that the Rumour of a new Revolution lately propagated with so much Industry, was as groundless as malicious, and that, according to the last Advices from Moscow, the Czarina was in perfect Health, and all things very quiet.

A Body of 15,000 Saxons are actually to march into the Palatinate, in order to join the Auxiliaries in British Pay, as was lately hinted in this Paper.

The Emperor has lately demanded of the States of Suabia Passage for 20,000 French Recruits.

Private Letters from Stockholm say, that the King gave Lieutenant-Colonel Murcin a very gracious Reception, seemed highly satisfied with the Czarina's Letter, and in his Answer treated her always with the Title of Imperial Majesty, as well as in the Direction.

It is said the Marquis de las Minas has formed a Project of marching over the Mountains, from Savoy into the Duchy of Milan.

The Czarina has put off her Return to Petersburg till the Month of March.

His Imperial Majesty demanded lately a Free Gift from the City of Cologne, but upon mature Deliberation the Magistrates desired to be excused.

The Merchants begin to be in some Hopes of the Safety of the Don Carlos, Diggs, the Captain of the Exmouth being arrived in Town, who reports, That by bad Weather he was drove into the Latitude of 56:30, on the Coast of Norway; so that it is generally believed Capt. Diggs has met with the like hard Fate, and has been forced to bear away to the Northward.

The Vreede, Coetes, from Curaco for Amsterdam, is lost near Galway. Upwards of 100 Bags of Silver were lost.

The Albion, Smithson, from London and Cork for Jamaica, is lost near Porto Rico.

The Mary, McCarty, from London for Jamaica, is taken by the Spaniards off Porto Rico.

The Stadt Harlem, Keer, taken some time ago by the Swedes and carried into Gottenburgh, is released.

The Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor has presented the Rev. Mr. Robert Hughes to the Rectory of Mary-Major in Wallingford in the County of Berks, and also to the Rectory of St. Leonard in Wallingford, with the Chapel of Sathwell, in the County of Berks and Diocese of Salisbury.

The Right Hon. the House of Peers have adjourn'd to Tuesday next.

On Thursday Night died at his House in Lombard-street, Mr. Francis Collins, an eminent Goldsmith and Jeweller.

The same Evening died, at his House in Gracechurch-street, Major Allen, an eminent Confectioner.

Yesterday Admiral Vernon, who arriv'd in Town the Evening before, waited on his Majesty, and was most graciously receiv'd.

Yesterday the Sessions began at the Old Baily, when Sixteen Prisoners were try'd, of whom Three were capitally convicted, viz.

Thomas Dennis, for stealing a Dun Gelding;
William Brand, and
Bryan Cooley, for Street Robberies.

Nine were cast for Transportation, and Four acquitted.

The most Delightful Fragrant TINCTURE for the Breath, Teeth and Gums.

AT once using makes the BREATH most charmingly fine, sweet, and pleasant, the Teeth perfectly white, clean and beautiful, and is the most certain Cure for the SCURVY in the Gums in the World.

It infallibly preserves the Breath, Teeth and Gums in their utmost Beauty and Perfection, if they are no Ways disorder'd, and if they are, immediately rectifies all their Defects; for the same Minute it is used it makes the most offensive Breath smell incomparably fine and charming, and in a short Time so effectually cures, that a disagreeable Breath will not return.

It instantly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth extremely white and delicately beautiful; infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd from becoming worse; absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, be it ever so inveterate, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth again, when almost eaten quite away, and assuredly fastens loose Teeth to Adnation. It is to be used but a few Drops at a Time, is exceeding pleasant, and leaves a very grateful and delectable Flavour in the Mouth.

In a Word, for most delightfully performing, and quickly curing an ill-scented Breath, for immediately making the blackest Teeth most excellently white, certainly fastening them when loose, effectually preserving them from rotting or decaying, and infallibly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its Equal in the Universe, as all the Quality and principal Gentry, who use it acknowledge.

It is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

THE Elements of ALGEBRA, in a New and Easy Method; with their Use and Application, in the Solution of a great Variety of Arithmetical and Geometrical Questions, by General and Universal Rules. To which is prefix'd, An Introduction containing a succinct History of this Science.

By Mr. NATHANIEL HAMMOND, of the Bank.

Extract from the Account of this Book in the Works of the Learned.

"The World has long complained of the Want of a proper Introduction to Algebra. Some are so very conceited, as if they were contriv'd not to teach but to introduce a Tutor; others again are larger, but wrote with so little Consideration to the Understandings of such as are altogether unacquainted with the Science, that they are of very little Use to those who are most inclin'd to make use of them. Where it comes to pass, that few find it practicable to make any Progress in Algebra without a Master, tho' certainly the Science itself is far from surpassing a clear Head, and a tolerable Understanding."

"The Design of this Treatise, which is of a reasonable Bulk, and which contains nothing which is not said, and to that Purpose, is to assist such as are engag'd in learning Algebra, with a regular Method, and a large Stock of Examples; so that their Scholars may find Employment in their Algebra; and to enable such as live in Country Places, and must consequently want all other Tutors, except Books, to acquire such a Skill in this Science, as may enable them to spend a Portion of their Time agreeably in the Cultivation of their better Parts, and in rendering a natural Method of acquiring after Truth habitual."

"The Treatise begins with a copious Explanation of the Fundamental Principles of the Art, and of the Signs and Method of Notation used therein: The Author then proceeds to the several Rules, explaining them carefully and copiously in all their various Cases; so that with a moderate Attention it is simply impossible for a Person, who desires to be Master of Algebra, to miss of his End."

"We never find this Writer advancing any thing out of the proper Place, or burthening the Mind of his Scholar with Rules, before they become necessary: He professes to have imitated the judicious Euclid in this Respect; and he has done it with equal Art and Felicity. By this means he has delivered the young Student in Algebra from that which is usually the most fatiguing Part of the Science, viz. The Doctrine of Surds, in the Manner in which it is usually taught. By the same Means he leads his Reader directly to Equations; and, by shewing him the Profit he will reap from this Science, encourages him to overcome all its Difficulties. But having thus laid a strong and rational Foundation, he moves more slowly through the rest of his Work, that whoever follows him, may be oblig'd to become Master of every Branch of the Art, so as to be a complete Algebraist, before he quits his Book, and not a Smatterer."

"Quadratic Equations, and the Art of managing Convergences, the admirable Invention of the incomparable Newton, are here so clearly explained, and their several Cases so plainly set down, and so thoroughly explicated, that it may be truly said, there are no where else such Instructions to be met with. At the Close of the Book, we find a Collection of Observations, necessary for enlightening such Minds as are willing to proceed still farther in analytic Discoveries; so that considering the Compass of this Work, and that it is very moderate, it is as complete as possibly can be expected: And he who is thoroughly versed in it, will find no great Difficulties, when he proceeds to sublimer Studies. The Language is plain and natural, the Book is more copious than any other in Examples, and the Illustrations of them are so full and clear, that it is impossible to misake their Meaning."
